PLEASE NOTE

- The Career Training Institute of Australia does not provide accommodation but will happily assist all applicants with homestay and share accommodation requirements.
- Transport to and from the Hotel and external training venues are the responsibility of the student. As students will be "working" normal shifts, early morning starts and late finishes are expected. Students are expected to make their own transport arrangements and allow for the flexible hours as required.
- Gold Coast International Hotel gives no guarantee of employment during, or at the completion of the course. Employment is subject to the requirements of the Hotel Company and expertise of applicants.
- Comprehensive insurance covers students whilst in the Hotel on work experience, special projects and excursions.
