An Introduction

Career Training Institute of Australia (CTIA) has been providing training services 1998. CTIA provides training in Hospitality, Travel, Tourism, Events and Business sectors.

We tailor all of our courses to meet employer's and industry needs, from one unit through to a complete qualification.

CTIA has an experienced team of trainers - all of whom have a strong industry background. These trainers are dedicated to helping trainees to reach their own personal best potential.

CTIA was established with the objective of developing multi-skilled professionals for the Hospitality and Tourism industry, taking training out of the traditional confines of a classroom and placing it back into the industry that it serves. We pride ourselves on Quality not Quantity & have gained much industry recognition for our industry-based programs.

Flexibility, availability and reliability are some of the core values of the organisation and these are reflected in the success of the projects undertaken:

CTIA - was the contracted Training Provider for Sydney SuperDome. Located at Homebush Bay the Sydney SuperDome is a world-class venue. At 21,000 seats it is Australia's largest indoor entertainment and sporting arena. In 1999 CTIA managed the initial staff induction process including SuperDome-specific induction manual design, development and construction, as well as training delivery. Ongoing venue/departamental and supervisory level training needs analysis and ongoing training plan management are also managed by CTIA. During 2000 CTIA provided ongoing training in a seamless, integrated operation that sees CTIA working closely with SSD towards the ultimate success of the venue before, during and after the Olympic Games.

CTIA – in 2000 CTIA managed a training program for Spotless Services Limited, one of Australia's largest Master Caterers and the premier caterer for the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games. The program saw CTIA interviewing and selecting people to be trained to a Certificate I in Hospitality level. Successful completion of the course guaranteed trainees employment at the Olympic Games and Para-Olympic Games with Spotless Services.

CTIA – in 2000 CTIA was the contracted training provider for the Sydney Cricket Ground (SCG) and Sydney Football Stadium (SFS). Working with Eurest Australia, CTIA designed and managed the initial staff induction and training process for 650 Food & Beverage staff and Supervisory level employees

CTIA - is a Pre-Qualified Supplier (PQS) for the delivery of training and assessment services subsidised by the Department of Education & Training (DET).

Aims, Philosophies and Objectives

The Career Training Institute of Australia (CTIA) works hard to establish itself as the leading force in the education of individuals training for a career in Hospitality, Tourism and Events industries.

The courses offered by the Institute are innovative and rewarding, with students being encouraged to reach their maximum potential, satisfied in the knowledge that their course has been especially designed to allow them every opportunity for creative or practical and technical advancement.

The Institute ensures that:

- ✚ both the practical and theory elements relate directly to the industry.
- ✚ that the curriculum provides for continuity in, and progressive development of, knowledge, skills, attitudes and values.
- ✚ that students are helped to grow in confidence and self-worth, taking responsibility for their own learning and success.
- ✚ This commitment to helping each student to reach their full potential is reflected in the quality of staff, facilities and study program.

Access to Participant Records

Participants may wish to access their records to check on work completed, progress or for other reasons. Please organise with your Trainer a time suitable to view your training records. Other parties will not be permitted to access participant files without written consent from the participant.

Attendance & Progress Policy

Students are required to attend all lessons, field trips and work experience (where applicable). More than 20% absenteeism is not permissible and could result in a student failing their course. CTIA monitors attendance closely. It is proactive in notifying and counselling students who are at risk of failing to meet the attendance requirements of at least 80% of all scheduled contact hours for the duration of the course.

Students are required to produce a doctor's certificate if absence is due to illness for periods of two days or more. A student must apply to the Course Co-ordinator for any extension of course time.

You are required to let the Institute know if you cannot attend college because of injury, illness or accident. Payment of Austudy/Abstudy Youth Allowance may be affected if you do not attend regularly. The Institute is obliged to report extended, unexplained absences for students receiving assistance.

In the event a student is unable to attend a class or is expected late for a lesson then the college should be phoned prior to the class commencing, or disciplinary action may result.

Absence Due to Illness

It is advisable for a student who is ill to obtain a medical certificate. This certificate is to be produced for recording, and then retained by the student. (A medical certificate does not cancel an absence; it only provides an explanation and must be presented within one month of its date of issue.)

A student who is too ill to immediately continue his/her studies may apply for special leave and have his/her enrolment temporarily suspended on the grounds of compassionate or compelling circumstances.

Medical and dental appointments should be made for outside college hours when they will not conflict with scheduled classes.

Attendance Monitoring

Lessons commence promptly - please do not be late.

Each student's attendance is recorded on the classroom roll for every class for which he/she is scheduled.

CTIA will review attendance records weekly, and will contact any student identified as having unsatisfactory attendance (i.e. less than 80%).

Satisfactory academic progress policy

The College expects each student to progress through his/her course at a rate that will enable the student to complete the course in the nominated duration. CTIA monitors, records and assesses every student's progress.

Special Consideration

CTIA appreciates that from time to time, a student may not be able to attend classes due to circumstances beyond his/her control. In such circumstances, the Training manager will use his/her professional judgement to assess each case on its individual merits, using the evidence provided, if:

- i) there is documentary evidence demonstrating that compassionate or compelling circumstances apply; and
- ii) the student is maintaining satisfactory academic progress; and
- iii) the student attended at least 80% of the scheduled course contact hours.

A copy of the evidence will be retained in the student's file.

Assessment Procedures

Candidate Instructions

Competency based assessment is the process of gathering evidence to confirm that candidates can perform required skills and knowledge. The assessment activities need to be conducted over a period of time, demonstrating application of skills and knowledge.

The assessment may require that the candidate complete different sections which may include: questions, research and work samples, project, scenarios, role plays and practical activities.

Competence in a unit requires the candidate successfully completes all activities. Candidates are entitled to two (2) re assessments for any question, activity or the entire assessment. It is the assessors responsibility to work with the candidate and assist them with any additional training that maybe required following an assessment, to ensure that they are prepared for reassessment.

To ensure that candidates are ready for the practical assessment they are required to satisfactorily complete all activities prior to commencing the practical assessment.

Notes regarding the assessment

- Candidate's are required to keep a copy of their assessment.
- Candidates are required to clearly indicate which assessment section or question is being addressed.
- Please note we will keep your assessment on file and it will not be returned to you.
- Please do not submit assessments in plastic folders or sleeves
- Please make sure that you fill in your name, sign, date and attach the cover page to your assessment. Indicate which activities have been attached to the cover page.

Assessment activities

Questions

Require candidates to answer questions in their own words to demonstrate understanding of the unit. The questions can be answered during the face to face class time or outside of class time. Questions can be answered verbally with your answer being documented by either your assessor or another suitable person such as a workplace supervisor or mentor. If any of your answers are deemed not satisfactory your assessor will contact you to arrange re assessment.

Research and work samples

Research activities require you to find out about a specific topic and present your findings to your assessor. When you are requested to submit work samples following your research, this means you need to research, apply your research findings to the workplace and create examples of documents that would/could be used in the workplace. Work samples can also include completing workplace templates.

Work samples are documents which have been created in the workplace or in the same style and manner which is appropriate to the workplace. With all work samples it is essential that you maintain confidentiality of all parties including the employer, clients and any other parties.

In the event that you are submitting real workplace documents it is essential that you gain permission from all relevant personnel (this must be written) and submit the approval with the documents.

Projects

When you are required to complete a project, this involves conducting research and compiling the requested information. You should present your project in a format and to a standard that would be accepted in the workplace.

Scenario

A scenario is a summary of events that have occurred and the candidate is required to demonstrate their skills and knowledge through application of these to the situation given. Once you have read the scenario provided you are required to complete the questions or activity that follows

Role Plays

In order to demonstrate competency in a simulated practical environment your assessor/fellow student may act as a guest or client to enable you to demonstrate skills and knowledge within an industry simulated context.

Practical activities

The practical assessment activities provide you with the opportunity to demonstrate your skills and knowledge in either a simulated or workplace environment. Some units require candidates to successfully complete multiple practical assessment activities to ensure you meet industry standard consistently under normal workplace constraints.

You may be observed in the workplace undertaking your daily activities or in a simulated environment. The specific skills to be demonstrated are detailed in the practical checklist under the heading, practical assessment.

Practical assessments must have access to particular workplace environment which will differ depending on the units being assessed. This environment and the requirement for equipment and the specific assessment context, such as customer ratios and time constraints is documented under the heading practical assessment.

Prior to the practical assessments the assessor is to establish with the candidate a time and date that would suit the candidate for the assessment to be undertaken. Suitability of time, date and location must be confirmed with the workplace supervisor if the assessment is being undertaken in the workplace.

Adjustments to assessment

Written questions can be conducted via oral questioning for candidates who require assistance with reading and/or writing.

Candidates may access literacy support in the workplace to assist with reading and writing tasks, ranging from having access to support or assistance from expert/mentor/supervisor.

Literacy requirements will vary depending on the workplace. Adjustments can be made to the assessment to respond to the given workplace. Literacy may be in English, a community language, or Braille, etc,

If you are unable to complete a particular activity or have a suggestion of a relevant workplace activity that would meet the requirements of the unit, we encourage you discuss this with your Assessor.

Submitting your assessment

You can hand your assessment in through your Trainer/Assessor, email to coursework@ctia.edu.au or alternatively you can post your assessment to the following address:

CTIA: Assessments
PO Box 8651
Gold Coast MC QLD 9726

Feedback

Candidates will be given feedback on all assessment activities within 14 days of receiving your assessment. Competency based assessment does not use a marking scale rather the candidate is deemed competent or not yet competent. Candidates deemed not yet competent are given additional opportunities to demonstrate competency.

Satisfactory demonstration of all activities is required before competency is achieved for the unit.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is a form of cheating. It is taking and using someone else's thoughts, writings or inventions and representing them as your own. Plagiarism is a serious act and may result in a participant's exclusion from a module or a course. If you have any doubts about including the work of other authors in your assessments, please consult with your assessor. The following list outlines some of the activities for which a participant can be accused of plagiarism:

- Presenting any work by another individual as one's own unintentionally
- Handing in assessments markedly similar to or copied from another student
- Presenting the work of another individual or group as their own work.
- Handing in assessments without the adequate acknowledgement of sources used, including assessments taken totally or in part from the internet.

You must be careful when using work from others. Copyright covers all work that is not your own including textbooks, newspapers, website information, music, magazines, movies etc.

You are allowed to do a certain amount of copying for research or study purposes. Generally, 10% or one chapter of a book is acceptable. All material taken from another source, word for word or paraphrased, must be acknowledge using an acceptable referencing system.

Re-evaluation of Assessment/Deferred Assessment Event/s

Students are liable for the financial commitment to the Institute for the duration of their course. Students whose fees are in arrears may have their enrolment cancelled unless prior arrangements have been made with institute.

Enrolment and course fees can be paid by cash or cheque and should be made payable to the Career Training Institute of Australia. No cash payments should be sent through the mail. Receipts will be issued on payment of fees. Reminder notices will be sent when fee instalments are due.

- ✚ You will receive a warning letter and maybe excluded from further study. Your attendance will also be affected.
- ✚ Students will not be allowed to commence study until all applicable fees are paid.

Deadlines

In order for the college to simulate real working situations and time restraints, student deadlines for the completion of assignments will be strictly enforced. This will enable trainers to successfully complete the curriculum within the necessary period and students to achieve the course objectives.

If assessments for a term are not submitted by the end of that term students may have to return the following year to repeat that subject/s.

Deferring, suspending or cancellation of enrolment

A student may only defer his/her studies on the grounds of illness, evidence by a doctor's certificate, compassionate or compelling circumstances on grounds beyond the control of the student or misbehavior by the student. Students must apply to CTIA for deferral of their studies and in doing so acknowledges the provider may choose to grant or decline any such request.

Traineeships

Agreement Overview

Traineeships offer a great opportunity for you to develop skills in the workplace, by combining employment and structured training. A trainee is contracted to an employer or Group Training Scheme for a nominal period of time, enabling them to successfully gain competence in the vocational area of their calling.

In Queensland, the Department of Education and Training (DET) is responsible for approving and administering the traineeship arrangements, for more information visit <https://training.qld.gov.au/apprentices>.

Setting up the traineeship is easy. One of our trainers will visit your workplace and explain how the traineeship works and the Australian Apprenticeship Support Network will provide the necessary paperwork that needs to be filled in.

Steps to get started:

An apprentice or trainee is a person contracted to an employer under a training contract for a nominal period of time. Apprenticeships and traineeships provide a combination of employment and structured training, enabling the person to successfully gain competence in a trade as an apprentice, or vocational area as a trainee.

<https://training.qld.gov.au/apprenticeshipsinfo/apprentices>

However, school-based apprenticeships and traineeships have specific requirements in addition to the information above, visit <https://training.qld.gov.au/apprenticeshipsinfo/school-based>

Through User Choice, the employer and the trainee, have the ability to select a Registered Training Organisation (RTO) which meets your needs. There are various RTO's offering different styles of training delivery. Our Organisation focuses on bringing the training to you, helping you develop your skills in your workplace, on your equipment. This is trainer led training on a one-to-one basis.

It is very important that you read and understand the terms and conditions of the training agreement.

Once the traineeship has past the probationary period, you and your employer are both bound by the terms and conditions of the contract. You will receive a letter from DET to confirm your traineeship has been registered, you need to give us a copy of this letter for your file, as this gives us the go ahead to start your training. You should file your copy of the letter in a safe place at home or work.

If you have any questions regarding the Training Agreement please talk with your trainer, an Australian Apprenticeship Support Network or the DET officer in your local region.

Responsibilities of Employers and Apprentices/Trainee

A training contract is a legally binding contract for the training of an apprentice or trainee. The parties to the training contract are identified as the employer, the apprentice or trainee (and parent/guardian where applicable).

Both the employer and apprentice or trainee have certain roles and obligations to fulfil under the training contract.

There are some requirements that relate specifically to SATs. It is important that parties are aware of the requirements.

How we provide training

Setting up the traineeship is easy. One of our trainers will visit your workplace and explain how the traineeship works and the Australian Apprenticeship Support Network will provide the necessary paperwork that needs to be filled in.

Once the traineeship has been activated, we will visit the trainee in the workplace and together with the employer and the trainee, we will create a structured training plan which reflects the existing skills of the learner and any training which needs to be completed. Each unit of competency will have an expected completion time frame. We will also work out the Tuition Fees which may be applicable.

Training will be provided at your workplace. In many of the traineeships, the employer can be responsible for the training and assessment of some or all of the units. When we complete the training plan with you, we will determine if the skills are carried out in the organisation, if the resources are available for the training, who will do the training and when the training will be completed by.

We will also identify all Learner Resources which will need to be supplied.

The trainee will be issued with a training record book, which stays in the workplace for the duration of the traineeship. This record book will be signed off as the trainee achieves competency in each unit of study.

The traineeship is usually completed over a 12 – 24 month period. However, part-time traineeship will take longer. Many trainees who have good underpinning knowledge will be able to gain their skills in a shorter length of time.

When the training is delivered, our trainer will work with the trainee on a one-on-one or small group basis. During the training, we will encourage the trainee to make notes. The trainee will need to practice, do research in the workplace, complete written reports and various assessment activities as part of collecting the evidence of skills.

Training Plan

The Training Plan determines which units of competency you need to complete for your traineeship.

Our trainer will visit the workplace and create the training plan in consultation with both the trainee and the employer. It is important that all parties take the time to sit down and discuss all the issues. When we design the training plan, we will explain what each unit of competency consists of, how it relates back to your workplace, how the assessment will be conducted, what evidence needs to be produced and when the unit should be completed by.

If you have completed any other courses or subjects and you would like to apply for credit transfer or RPL you should bring your documentation to this meeting.

The training plan will be copied and given to the trainer, the trainee and the employer. You will now use this as a guide so that you know which Competencies to start working on.

Fees and Charges

Student Contribution/Tuition fees are a compulsory charge which is applied by the State Government through the user choice contract. While DET funds the training up to a maximum amount for a qualification, the student tuition fee must be met by either the employer or the trainee as part of their contribution towards the cost of the training.

Tuition fees are the student's contribution to the cost of tuition. CTIA is required to collect tuition fees from students in accordance with the User Choice policy guidelines.

The tuition fees are collected for any traineeship which is at level II or III. The tuition fees are collected for any modules where we are responsible for the training.

Student contribution fees

Student contribution fees are the non-government contribution to the cost of training and assessment services provided by CTIA (fee is paid to CTIA).

Student contribution fees under the User Choice program in 2016/17 are set at $1.60 per nominal hour for each unit of competency/module to be calculated at the commencement of the unit of competency/module.

When the participant converts from a school-based apprentice or trainee to a full-time or part-time apprenticeship or traineeship, student contribution fees must be charged for training and assessment for any units of competency not yet commenced. This does not apply when the participant is a Year 12 graduate and is undertaking a high priority qualification as identified by the department.

Where the CTIA must collect a student contribution fee, it may be paid on behalf of the student by their employer or another third party, but cannot be paid or waived by CTIA.

Partial exemption — tuition fees

CTIA must charge 40 per cent of the student contribution fee where the participant falls into one or more of the following exemption categories:

- (a) The participant was or will be under 17 years of age at the end of February in the year in which the PQS provides training, and the participant is not at school and has not completed year 12.
- (b) The participant holds a Health Care Card or Pensioner Concession Card issued under Commonwealth law, or is the partner or a dependant of a person who holds a Health Care Card or Pensioner Concession Card, and is named on the card.
- (c) The participant issues the CTIA with an official form under Commonwealth law confirming that the participant, his or her partner or the person of whom the participant is a dependant, is entitled to concessions under a Health Care Card or Pensioner Concession Card.
- (d) The participant is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person. Acceptable evidence is as stated on the Training Contract and AVETMISS VET Enrolment Form.

Full exemption — tuition fees

The CTIA may apply full exemption from the student contribution fee where the participant falls into one or more of the following exemption categories:

Where payment of the student contribution fee would cause extreme financial hardship, then CTIA may waive these fees.

CTIA must apply full exemption from the student contribution fee where the participant falls into one or more of the following exemption categories:

- (a) where credit transfer/national recognition has been applied to a unit of competency/module
- (b) where the participant is a school-based apprentice or trainee
- (c) is undertaking a qualification as part of the Skilling Queenslanders for Work's Work Skills Traineeship program.

Fee-free Year 12 graduates

CTIA does not charge a student contribution fee to a Year 12 graduate who:

- (a) commences an apprenticeship/traineeship within 12 months of completing Year 12 (that is, by the end of the calendar year following completion of Year 12), and
- (b) meets the participant eligibility in 2.2.2, and;
- (c) enrolls in a high priority qualification identified by the department.

Students must provide evidence to show that they have completed Year 12 in Queensland and hold a Senior Statement issued by the Queensland Curriculum and Assessment Authority, or equivalent certification.

Additional charges

CTIA may seek additional charges from the employer/industry where the qualification funding priority is not priority One.

The funding priority accorded to a qualification represents the level of public funding contributed towards the cost of training for apprentices and trainees as published in the User Choice price list. The funding priorities are:

- Priority One (100 per cent subsidised)
- Priority Two (87.5 per cent subsidised)
- Priority Three (75 per cent subsidised)

If the qualification you wish to undertake attracts a 75% or 87.50% Government contribution because they are Priority Two or Priority Three qualifications respectively, then a Co-Contribution fee will be negotiated with you and/or your employer by Career Training Institute of Australia prior to enrolment.

Priority population groups

Individuals identified as belonging to a priority population group (PPG) undertaking a Priority Two or Priority Three qualification will receive 100 per cent of the government contribution.

PPGs are those declared on the national Apprenticeship/Traineeship Training Contract, such as individuals of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander origin, individuals from a non-English speaking background and individuals with disability, impairment or long-term condition.

School-based apprentices and trainees

School-based apprentices and trainees receive funding aligned to the priority level of the qualification.

Existing workers

Existing workers with an active registration number commencement date or recommencement date from 1 January 2017 are eligible for funding when undertaking Priority One, Priority Two or Priority Three qualifications.

Recognition of prior learning

We are required to charge and collect a fee calculated at $1.60 for the module/s or unit/s of competency assessed through the recognition of prior learning process under the User Choice Contract.

When the training plan is being developed, your trainer will be able to tell you how much the tuition fees will be.

Fee for Service

Not all trainees have their training funded by the State Government. There are circumstances where you may be eligible to become a trainee, but there will be no training funding. In this instance, the employer needs to make a commitment to fund the training. A costing will be negotiated on an individual basis with CTIA.

Completion procedure/issuing results:

Completing your course is a great achievement. Throughout the traineeship, your trainer will have verified the skills attained in the workplace. At the end of the traineeship, your trainer will check that the record book is totally completed and that all evidence has been collected.

Our courses are Nationally Recognised Courses and CTIA is a Registered Training Organisation. In order to be eligible for the qualifications learners must be assessed as Competent (C) in each of the Competency Units.

If students are assessed as Not Yet Competent (NYC) they will be given feedback and asked to resubmit the assignment with revisions.

When you have completed all the units in the record book, and these have been signed off by the trainee, employer and the trainer, the trainee and the employer must complete a Traineeship Completion Agreement (available from your trainer). This Completion Agreement must be signed by both parties within 5 working days after the employer and trainee have agreed to complete. The employer or trainee must give Career Training Institute of Australia a copy of this signed notice within 10 working days after agreement.

Once the employer, trainee and the registered training organisation have signed this Completion Agreement, the traineeship, including the training contract and training plan ends. The date on which all signatures are finalised, becomes the Actual Completion Date of the traineeship.

We will send you a copy of your results within 21 days of completing your course.

Withdrawing from your course

You have a responsibility as part of your training contract to notify Career Training Institute of Australia of any changes to your course. If you are going to withdraw from your course you need firstly terminate the traineeship with DET. This is done by completing a Cancellation of Training Contract form (available from your trainer) and must be signed by both the employer and the trainee.

As a trainee, you cannot just leave the workplace without mutually terminating the agreement, nor can the employer discontinue your employment without mutual consent. If there is an issue here, it needs to be brought to the attention of the Training Consultants or DET and this matter will be mediated through the State Training Council. It is important to act on these matters immediately, if you contact us, we will put you in contact with all of the appropriate people.

Once you have sent the form to DET, you need to send a copy to us, so we can issue you with results for any modules you have completed. You will then be able to use this Statement of Attainment.

Workers Compensation

Students involved in industry placement have Workers Compensation coverage for permanent injury, disability or death, whilst at the placement location, or while travelling directly between their home or the Institute and the location.

The insurance does not cover payments for medical or hospital treatment, rehabilitation, artificial limbs or travelling expenses. You may choose to get additional medical and hospital insurance for the time of the placement. It is your responsibility to arrange this on your own behalf.
